- FAMILY TIME- Plan some playdates with your family and your friends. It will help to develop special bonding and teach the kids valuable lessons of life .
- Develop special bonding and teach the kids valuable lessons of life.
- Building vocabulary in foundational years is all about exposing children to language by talking to them, reading to them and generally exposing them to a language rich environment so this summer break build your child's vocabulary by planning specific interactive language building activities.

- I SPY game describe an object in the room and let your child guess it. E.g I spy something that is black and has buttons on it.
Ans:- TV remote

I spy something that is round and shiny and has numbers on it?
Ans :- wall clock

- Gradually your child will also develop the skill to describe an object/ other things.
once upon a time making up stories is a great way to develop vocabulary as well as creativity and imagination. You can use a story with only pictures and take turns with your little ones by interpreting the pictures. To begin, you can have a familiar story and then you can take up unfamiliar stories.
- Keep it going:- as you pass things while driving take turns naming as many things as you can. Try to keep an unbroken chain of words.
- Reading:- create a small cozy space in your house and name it as "reading work". Set with your child and read to him/her some good story every day. The more they listen, the more they learn.
